

The Last Days of Jesus, Inc.

On the cross, Jesus quoted Psalm 22:1, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?” He said this after the leaders, in Matthew 27, fulfilled the words found in Psalm 22:7-8, 16 & 18, “All who see Me mock Me; they hurl insults, shaking their heads. He trusts in the Lord,” they say, “let the Lord rescue Him. Let Him deliver Him, since He delights in Him.” “They pierce My hands and My feet.” “They divide My clothes among them and cast lots for My garment.” Then, with the words found in John 19:30, “It is finished,” Jesus echoes the end of Psalm 22, as verse 31 says, “They will proclaim His righteousness, declaring to a people yet unborn: He has done it!” The job of paying for your sin and mine is done. Jesus endured it all once for all.

Can you make it through this maze from START to “It is finished”?
